FORMNEXT – WHERE IDEAS TAKE SHAPE

Demand for complex and customized parts continues to grow rapidly. Product life cycles are shorter than ever, supply chains are being redefined, and sustainability has long since become a decisive factor. Industrial production is becoming more demanding. This is where Additive Manufacturing reveals its strength and potential.

FORMNEXT IS THE HUB FOR ADDITIVE MANUFACTURING

Formnext brings together suppliers along the entire process chain with production managers from all manufacturing industries. With our year-round Industry Insights and Industry Events, we offer you an additional platform to strategically position your content within the relevant target audience.

THE HIGHLIGHT: FORMNEXT EXPO & CONVENTION

From 17–20 November 2026, the international AM community will once again gather in Frankfurt, Germany to experience innovations, expand networks, and actively shape the future of manufacturing.
